At Complete Engineering Camp, kids choose what projects to build and test, and work is self-paced. Young builders will also learn how scientists, architects, and engineers use writing to educate the world about their designs. From customized 3D printing, quadcopter drones, toy design and hydraulic robots to bridge construction, zip lines, homemade candy and cosmetics, the sky's the limit!

Easy, fun, and palm-sized! Tabletop moviemaking combines classic storytelling with a digital twist by shrinking down the movie production process to a table-size scope using mini puppets, props and backgrounds. Participants get hands-on moviemaking experience using iPads, iMovie, and the iMotionHD app for stop-motion animation clips. But this is one creative outlet not bound by electricity and a rectangular device. Spatial, tactile, visual and kinetic learners will thrive when it comes time to sketch, color, cut, paste, tape, sculpt and stage their tabletop stories. Students' voices, personal experiences, problem-solving, and a rich exchange of ideas are all at the heart of the production process as small collaborative groups design their short movies, shared on the final day of workshop. Write. Build. Film. Edit. Share!

Presenting a weeklong Grammar, Math & Study Skills Boost specifically for incoming 3rd-5th graders! Take advantage of this opportunity for your child to catch up or get ahead on fundamentals before the new school year! We start each morning off with core exercises in grammar that emphasize a sentence’s essential parts, (the subject and predicate), and how we can arrange any remaining parts in various ways by understanding what information they provide and what punctuation we must use. In our middle learning block, students practice solving word problems that involve some of the trickier concepts at their grade level. After lunch, we regroup to practice study skills such as summarization, notemaking methods, and planning long-term assignments. Our Grammar, Math & Study Skills Boost class is highly recommended as a primer for any 4th and 5th graders planning to take the following week’s Writing Skills Intensive.
